SNOEBERGER SELLS CONSTRUCTION WORK

George Emenacker, Well Known Plymouth Young Man, Takes Over Electric Business From Lighting Plant--Shop Located With O. B. Klingerman

C. D. Snoeberger, proprietor of the electric light plant, on Saturday evening sold out the construction and repair part of his business in Plymouth to George Emenacker, who is a native of this city. Previous to going to South Bend, where he has been engaged in the electric business for some considerable time, Mr. Emenacker was for six years, employed by Mr. Snoeberger. He is a thorough and practical electrician, understanding every branch of the business, and has always had the confidence of his employers.

With the consummation of this deal, Mr. Snoeberger will be enabled to devote his whole time to his electric light and power plant, the business of which is growing rapidly. In fact, so much so, that he felt it necessary to separate the two branches in order to give the attention to the lighting part which it requires. In future he will not do any house repair work of any kind. Mr. Emenacker's business will be located in the shop of O. B. Klingerman, plumber on Laporte street.

County Treasurer Elect Maxey.

George A. Maxey, who will assume the duties of County Treasurer on Jan. 1st, came near being hurt in an accident while coming to Plymouth Monday evening. He was driving from his home in Burr Oak to Hibbard where he was to take the train. In passing over some of the road where workmen had left dumps of gravel without spreading it, the horse stumbled and fell. After all was righted up it was found that it was one of those "lucky" accidents, as one of the shafts was all that was broken, and Mr. Maxey and the driver were not hurt. With the extra straps about the harness, aided by a handkerchief, the buggy was made to do service, and they got to Hibbard just in time for the train. It is likely that Mr. Maxey's family will move to Plymouth in a short time. He returned home on the early train Tuesday morning.

Good Work by Plymouth Girl.

Last week Mr. Camp, the National Bank examiner was in the city on his tour looking over the affairs of all banks of this class. He found everything as it should be, correct to the dot, which speaks well for this institution. Mr. Camp took occasion to remark after he was through, that the set of books kept by the efficient assistant at this bank was the neatest and nicest set of books that he had ever examined and complimented the work.

This may not seem of much moment to the general public, but it is just another instance where Plymouth and Marshall county stands for the best. At the Home Coming in the fruit display, the judge, Mr. Swain, found a plate of apples of the Grimes Golden variety, raised by Ira Brumbaugh, which he pronounced the most perfect plate of apples he had ever seen. This compliment to Miss Bertha Hoover, of the First National Bank of Marshall county, is another demonstration of the ability of our people to do things right. It is a compliment well deserved, and we congratulate Miss Hoover, and the bank as well for holding up Marshall county above all other places.

PAVING IN ARGOS.

Town Busy Making Walnut Street a Good Highway From Michigan East.

The big thing these days in Argos is the paving of Walnut street from Michigan east to the corporation limits. The street from Michigan to the hotel is 30 feet wide, paved with vitrified brick, and the remainder of the way is 28 feet wide. The new work goes more than a block east of the railroad.

This paving was begun on a petition filed by J. A. Huffman. Several other petitions had been filed before this one, but nothing was ever done with them. Mr. Huffman pushed his along and the work is now in progress and will soon be completed. Mr. Huffman is the republican nominee for councilman from the second ward, and his progressive views on town government will beyond doubt recommend him strongly for election

GOOD INTEREST CONTINUES IN THE REVIVAL

REV. MR. MOW BRINGS AMENS FROM MANY IN THE AUDIENCE--GREAT CHORUS SINGING.

DELMARTER'S SOLOS

Tall Musician Is a Big Feature of the Union Services Now On--Afternoon Meetings Begin.

The Union Revival is growing in interest at each service. Five of the pastors of the city are proving a strong force for the advancement of a higher and better life. Mr. Delmarter is a host in himself. The solo he sings each meeting is well worth the attention of all lovers of music in our city.

On Tuesday at 2:30 was the first afternoon meeting, in charge of Rev. Mr. Baker. A good number of earnest workers were present. The meeting was a Bible study along the line of conversion, and was helpful to all present.

The service Tuesday evening began promptly at seven o'clock. The seats of the large auditorium were well filled. Mr. Delmarter with his tall form and strong voice had charge for the first half hour. He is assisted by a large choir of singers from six of the churches of the city and the music brought forth is really a "heaven below."

At 7:30 Rev. Mr. Mow began his sermon for a more earnest consecration for the work of the church. He became quite eloquent and a number of times during his discourse the people joined with de-light in approving his appropriate well filled. Mr. Delmarter with his illustrations with hearty amen. The interest became so great that the people were even after the closing prayer and benediction the people did not know they were dismissed.

Free Apples.

Supt. Fries of the county farm states that there are many more apples at the farm than they will be able to care for or use, and that the public is welcome to come and pick what they want without any charge, not to exceed five bushels to any one family. These apples are the Ben Davis.

Marriage Licenses.

Laura P. Breunlin to Edgar M. Crittenden, both of Bremen.
Grace M. Rennells to Tony H. Zummerlee.
Robert L. Espich and Lavera Finney.
Herbert Kelley and Lucy E. Martin.
